

1st EDITION OF THE WORLD BOOK DAY MINI SAGA COMPETITION

The competition is open to all students enrolled in the Faculty of Philology in either the degree or the master's programmes.

The texts should be written in English and must be exactly 50 words in length.

Only one mini saga per person can be submitted.

The text should be presented in PDF format and signed with a pseudonym, which should appear in the text of an email addressed to secretaria_ff@ulpgc.es and sent before 23.59 on the 13th of May 2022.

The jury, which will be composed of members from the teaching staff of the Faculty of Philology, will judge the works presented and award the following prizes:

First prize: a diploma and a set of books

Two runner-up prizes: a diploma

The jury's decision and the winners will be announced in a prize-giving ceremony on the 19th of May at the Faculty of Philology.

The Faculty of Philology will publish the winning texts on the faculty website and, in the event that the jury recognises the literary quality of other texts that have been submitted, they will request the permission of the corresponding authors for their online publication, too.

Participation in this competition constitutes the acceptance of the terms and conditions.
